FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Prothonotary congratulates newly naturalized US Citizens

Carlisle, PA On Thursday June 10th at 2 PM in the Historic Old Courthouse, Carlisle, PA, fifty-one candidates representing twenty-two countries will be receiving certificates of naturalization from Cumberland County Prothonotary David D. Buell. “This is a day that the staff and I truly look forward to. We are honored to be a part of the candidates first day as US citizens. I congratulate all of our new citizens of the United States of America.”

This year’s ceremony will be performed by Jim Graham of Homeland Security. Judge Christylee L. Peck will be presiding and remarks will be given by President Judge Edward E. Guido, Judge Jessica E. Brewbaker and Cumberland County Bar Association President Hubert Gilroy, Esq. In addition, representatives from state and county government will be in attendance and several community organizations will be presenting the newly naturalized citizens with commemorative gifts.
