

Cumberland County 2025 Hazard Mitigation Plan

*As of January 2025, there are no available individual local municipality flood vulnerability maps. For Appendix D, Cumberland County is utilizing the updated countywide digital flood insurance rate maps (DFIRM's) that were published on September 7, 2023, on the FEMA Map Service Center (<https://msc.fema.gov/portal/home>). All communities and floodplains within the County are shown above. Further information is provided in Section 4.3.3. Flood, Flash Flood, & Ice Jams.
